

Cruisin' Corvettes of Tallahassee

Business Meeting July 5, 2012

Meeting was called to order at 7:00 p.m. by our President, Lee Chadbourne at Po'Boys in North Tallahassee.

OLD BUSINESS:

Lee Chadbourne: Big Thanks to Lynda for all the hard work she put into the Corvette Club Fourth of July BBQ! The little rain that we had cooled off our afternoon nicely, while our fearless leader grilled hamburgers, sausages, and hotdogs! A grand o'l time was had by all. Thanks everyone for bringing and sharing all your favorite foods. We will use the left over paper supplies for our event with the Children's Lighthouse this Saturday.

Lynda Watson: Up date on our budget we are running about $100.00 above our budget.

Ed Huck: Has a new batch of raffle tickets for a 2013 Black Convertible that will be drawn 9/1/2012. See Ed for your chance to win a Corvette!

NEW BUSINESS:

Lee Chadbourne: July 14, was set to present our donation to the Children's Lighthouse. We will be meeting at the Waffle House on Mahan at 11:15, to caravan to the Lighthouse by 11:30 to enjoy a presentation by the girls, eat pizza, and like always enjoy our time together!

July 21; we would like to join in an event with the Vintage Vets of Tallahassee; for those interested we will be meeting at the Wingstop; (Thomasville road, and Bannerman intersection) at 9:45 and caravan to Bradley's Store for hotdogs and a picnic in the park, we have been trying to get this going for awhile now, come and show your support.

August 11, has been selected to caravan down to Pensacola Air force Museum; details are being worked out if you are interested contact Lee Chadbourne he is heading up the planning on this event.

David Wiggins is asking around to see if anyone would be interested in traveling to "The" Corvette Museum in 2013; Labor Day will be their 60th Anniversary; talk to David about this if you would enjoy participating in this trip.

Barbie: Keep thinking on how to honor Barbie in some way, we are open for suggestions. She has been a great support for our club in so many ways.

Christmas Party this year will be December 14th at the University Club like last year; this year Linda Huck will be heading the planning on this event. Let her know if you can help in any way. We will be having a silent auction, so think about things to donate, and let her know.

Meeting adjourned at 7:43 p.m.

Those in attendance: Lee Chadbourne; Jan Nielsen; Lynda Watson; and her son Kyle; Nancy VanWilder; Ed/Linda Huck; Greg/Lex Ballantyne; John Harris; Russ/Buzzy Sobczak; Tom Hannah; and David Wiggins.

14 Members present.

Respectfully submitted:
Nancy VanWilder
Secretary