

Cruising Corvettes of Tallahassee March 5, 2015 Membership Meeting

President Lee Chadbourne opened the meeting at 7pm and called on John Harris to report on the Pensacola trip the previous weekend. John described a great weekend that started with a tour of the Flight Academy which hosts school age children. He also described the static display of Navel airplanes. John Opper covered the tour of the Navel Air Museum led by Captain Hank Martin (USN retired). Many thanks to Lee and Phyllis for planning a great trip.

Treasurer Lynda Watson gave a report on the club financial position: $1500 on hand, 21 registered for the car show, and most all bills paid.

Chris Keena outlined the calendar of the upcoming events:
